WHERE IS THE BALANCE?—We have often asked the Radical press and speakers what has become of the $237,000,000, which is the difference between the amount of revenue collected and the amount which the radicals acknowledge to have expended in the last year. They collected $471,000,000, added $12,000,000 to the debt, making a charge against the party of $583,000,000. Against this they offset $130,000,000, which was paid as interest, and as expenses, $116,000,000. Allowing these last figures, and there remains $237,000,000 as perquisites, pocket-money, laid over or stolen. There is no doubt but the amount was stolen. If it can be honestly accounted for, why do not the radicals do it? Tell us where is the $237,000,000, to balance the account?—[Reporter.]

GREENEY ON THE PROSPECT.—After figuring up for his candidate the States certain and doubtful, Greeley concludes with the following exhortation to the radicals. It looks very much as if he were ready to fling up the sponge:

Men and brethren! We must carry Connecticut, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania for Grant and Colfax. With these—or even half of them—there can be no mistake as to the result. Without at least two of them, all is in doubt. We carry every one of them except, possibly, New Jersey, if we begin at once and resolutely try.

CHANCE TO INVEST.—The editor of the Stockton Gazette has been authorized to make the annexed bet: $100 in gold coin on each, that California, Oregon, Nevada, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, New Jersey and Connecticut will cast their votes for Horatio Seymour; and $200 in gold coin that Horatio Seymour will be the next President of the United States. All of the above bets must be taken together, and a bonus of $25 will be given to the man who takes them.

The Philadelphia Age suggests that any number of riots are wanted at the South to supply Northern radicals with political capital for the canvass. It says: "It is certain that the radicals will spare no efforts to provoke the proper number of riots." This is confirmed by information received from every direction in the South. The Age says: "If the riots do not happen, they will be invented, which is almost susceptible of demonstration, if the false and indignantly denuded accounts of horrible murders, that never occurred, may be taken as an illustration."

MORRISSEY'S POSITION.—Radical papers still persist in asserting that John Morrissey intends to support Grant and Colfax. The following card from Morrissey ought to set that matter at rest:

I intend to support the Democratic ticket, as I have done through life. These stories as I have been put in circulation by my enemies. Those who know me understand my fidelity to the Democratic party. I claim the right to differ in regard to nominations, but never bolt the regular nominees.

A RADICAL GAIN.—The Radical party in Sacramento received on Wednesday evening last a notable (?) accession to their ranks in the person of I. S. Brown, a correspondent of the vile and filthy sheet known as the San Francisco Varieties. It is said that Brown once found it necessary to leave Sacramento in a hurry and between two days.

NEW DEMOCRATIC PAPER.—We have received the first number of the Santa Cruz Journal, a new advocate of the cause of Democracy, published in Santa Cruz by James Galway. The Journal is next in its appearance, earnest in the cause and will doubtless be conducted with ability. We wish it success.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—We publish on an other page, by request of a number of subscribers, the decision of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, rendered in May last in the case of Whitney vs. Frisbie, and involving the titles to certain lands. It will be found a matter of interest to settlers.

ELECTION PROCLAMATION.—Gov. Haight has issued a proclamation for the election of three Representatives to Congress and five Presidential Electors, to take place on the 2d of November next.

Good.—The Chicago Times says the indications of a change of public opinion are such as to warrant the belief that Illinois will give 50,000 majority for Seymour and Blair.

The Maine Election.

The announcement by telegraph of the result of the recent election in Maine has been seized upon by our Radical opponents, and greedily devoured as a crumb of comfort to their sinking fortunes. Like a drowning man, they catch at straws to save them from their inevitable fate, but the lavish use of gunpowder on such occasions can but excite the ridicule of reflecting men of their own party. Assuming the figures of the dispatch to be correct, there is nothing comprehended in the result to inspire the most sanguine Radical mind with a hope to redeem their waning fortunes.

In 1866, in that State, the figures, as presented by official records, show the Radical majority to have been over 27,000. The vote of that year, compared with the returns just received from Radical sources, clearly demonstrate a Democratic gain of at least 7,000 this year. To have expected a Democratic majority at this time in that State would have been simply ridiculous. No such hope was indulged in, as is evidenced by the tone of the Democratic press previous to the election.

Neither Maine nor Vermont have been counted upon to add strength to the cause of Democracy in the coming contest. Their people are held under the influence of a bondholding aristocracy, from which there is no hope of deliverance until the final triumph of a just cause in November next. While our Radical friends are whistling to keep up their courage, a failure to maintain their former standing in their own strongholds will be a subject of congratulation to Democrats. More than enough States, without the aid of either of those mentioned, whose people are less oppressed by the rule and dictation of Radicalism, are certain to roll up handsome majorities for Seymour and Blair. It is but natural for Radicals, reduced to the desperate straits in which they find themselves, to seek pretexts for an indulgence in farcical enthusiasm, and their exhibitions of feigned joy should excite no feeling of enmity. The time is rapidly approaching when our opponents will not be blessed even with the poor privilege of manufacturing outward signs of rejoicing over questionable victories in States conceded to Radicalism, but the country will resound with the acclamation of a people freed from the burdens and shackles under which they are now suffering, and to secure this boon let every Democrat be nerved to action.

GRANT HEARD FROM.—According to the San Francisco Times, the General has turned up at Chicago and made a speech—has left off "purple" and "hoes" talk and gone right into politics, and from the masterly manner in which he handles the great political issues of the day, we venture the prediction that there is not a Rad. but will vote for him on the grounds of his great statesmanship, as evinced in his great Chicago speech, which we give below for their benefit. According to the Times, a mighty throng assembled to hear the "great reticent;" the streets were brilliantly lighted with Roman candles, and after the playing of a fine popular air by the band and the singing of an air or so by the Glee Club, loud calls were made for the "silent General," who came forward and said:

GENTLEMEN: I thank you for this spontaneous compliment. As this address knows I do not make speeches, and I could hardly find language in the presence of so large a gathering of my fellow-citizens. You must simply allow me to return my sincere thanks for this kind call. I thanked you once for your kindness; all I can do now is to thank you again for this unexpected greeting and for the magnificent turnout; so I can but say I thank you—I thank you.

After this, the longest speech he ever made, who says Grant is not a statesman.

YOLO COUNTY DEMOCRAT.

National Democratic Platform.

The Democratic party in National Convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism and discriminating justice of the people, stand upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guarantee of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled for all time to come by the war, or the volunteer action of the Southern States in Constitutional Conventions assembled, and never to be resuscitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First—The immediate restoration of all States to their rights in the Union under the Constitution of civil government and the American people.

Second—Amnesty for all past political offenses and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third—The payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable, all money drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and when the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought in right and in justice to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth—Equal taxation of every species of property, according to value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the officeholder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Sixth—Economy in the administration of the Government, the reduction of the standing army and navy, the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau, and all political instrumentalities designed to serve negro supremacy; simplification of the system, and discontinuance of inequitable modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue; that the burden of taxation be equalized and lessened; the credit of the country made good; all assessments for the enrolling of the State militia into national forces in time of peace, and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports; and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures as well, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh—Reform of abuses in the administration; the expulsion of corrupt men from office; the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to the independence of the Executive and Judicial Departments of the Government; the subordination of military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpation of Congress and despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which will command the respect of foreign powers, furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights, and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign powers to punish them for alleged crimes committed beyond their jurisdiction. In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the radical party for its disregard of right and the unparalleled opposition and tyranny which have worked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that sacred pledge under which was raised that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory. Instead of restoring the Union it has so far as it is in its power dissolved it and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro suffering. It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizure and arrests and military trials and secret Star Chamber inquisitions for constitutional tribunals. It has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from search and seizures. It has entered the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters, without any specification or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law. It has converted the American Capitol into a battle. It has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would now dare resort. It has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme and judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subject to great and atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created during the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment, even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we must as a subjected and conquered people amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution. And we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or interfere with this exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution, and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of Government, and can only end in a single centralized, consolidated government, in which the separate existence of the States will be absorbed, and an unequalled despotism be established in place of a Federal Union of co-equal States, and that we regard the reconstruction acts of Congress such usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary and void.

That our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must be ever gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely among the people and should be disposed of either under the pre-emption of homestead lands, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, exercising the power of his office in restricting the aggression of Congress on the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and on behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard.

Upon this platform the Democratic party appeal to every patriot, including all who desire to support the Constitution and restore the Union, to unite with us in the present great struggle for the liberties of the people; and that to all such, to whatever party they may have heretofore belonged, we extend the right hand of fellowship, and hail all such as friends and brothers.
